

Please do not relax restrictions for cell phone use aboard aircraft.
I feel it interferes with aircraft signals and annoys other passengers and prevents flight attendants from doing their job because people are on the phone talking, not listening to announcements made by flight attendants.